“Minutes In Seconds” Church Council – Monday, May 24th

The council discussed the first steps in the process of calling a pastor, which are to affirm our congregation’s core values and vision for the future.

The Council agreed to the following:

- To use a vision process that is inclusive and open to all who worship here
- To hold a one-day visioning workshop for the congregation this summer
- To include information gathered from the congregation in past sessions
- To use an outside facilitator

The council also discussed new ministries now underway and received an update on council nominations.
